There are times when the earth is trem - bling and we all get lost.

When the co - lours fade a - way and the dark - ness ri - ses up and bursts.

The image shows a piano score for the song 'Can somebody tell me who I am'. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The first system has a tempo marking of ♩ = 60 and a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system includes the lyrics 'There are times when the earth is trem - bling and we all get lost.' and features a change in harmony from C#m7 to A(add9). The fourth system includes the lyrics 'When the co - lours fade a - way and the dark - ness ri - ses up and bursts.' and features a change in harmony from C#m7 to F#m. Chord diagrams for C#m7, A(add9), and F#m are provided above the corresponding measures. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass and a more melodic line in the treble.
